The map displays the National Highway System (NHS) routes in the Olympia-Lacey area of Washington state. The main route shown is the Eisenhower Interstate System (I-5), which runs north-south through the region. Other NHS routes include SR-101 and SR-8. The map also shows various local streets and highways, including Steilacoom Blvd, Main St, Martin Wy, and College St. Key locations marked include Olympia, Lacey, Tumwater, and Steilacoom. The map also shows the Squaxin Island Indian Reservation, Nisqually Indian Reservation, and Fort Lewis Military Reservation. The map is color-coded to show different land use types: yellow for Census Urbanized Areas, purple for Indian Reservations, olive green for Department of Defense land, light green for National Forest, dark green for National Park Service land, and light blue for water. The map includes a legend on the left side with symbols for various transportation facilities and a scale bar at the bottom left.
